GLUED TO LOVE

God's Person nailed to your past.

God's Love nailed to your future.

*“And do not fear”
seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.”*

2Pe 1:3 (NAS77)

NOTHING LESS THAN GOD HIMSELF IS THE REASON for your SOUL.

This verse, like many, begins with an emotional healing in the form of giving us permission to put aside fear. And by what reason can we do this? The reason is not singular but dual. If broken down it simply says that God's very divine abilities HAVE given, by decree, everything you need to live this life₁ and live it god-like₂. How? Through the True knowledge of He Himself living you. Yes the very one who has called us by no other way than His very own glory and excellence. What glory and what excellence? Christ being at home in you, of course.

*“For God, who said,
‘Light shall shine out of darkness,’
is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God
in the face of Christ.”*
2 Cor 4:6 (NAS77)

Hidden in the above declaration is a treasure. You may not have thought of it just this way, but by His death you died so that whatever life He now lives is your living out what He is living in you, as you. How? By way of your having been GLUED TO LOVE. You, as He, are slave to the life giving love of the Father.

Pause...

I can hear many instantly ask, “But what about judgement?” To this I declare, you can never begin to understand God's judgement and justice until you have drowned and been resurrected IN God's Love.

This love is final. If you can either escape or put aside your glued-ness to Christ you can annul the work of God. In fact, you declare you can set your throne over God and make Him look good, but not as good as you can make yourself look good.

“But you said in your heart, ‘I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, And I will sit on the mount of assembly in the recesses of the north. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.’”
Isa 14:13,14 (NAS77)

The frustration of being GLUED TO LOVE is that you have to love yourself. People don't mind hating any god or their neighbor. It is hating one's self that causes all the ruckus. You can hide from your neighbor and think you can hide from God but you cannot hide from your self. And so is birthed the hate of existing. Then comes along someone who so loves you that He doesn't even ask you to put forth one ounce of effort to be something other than what you are, a self hater and an other hater. He says, "I can work with that!"

How He works with that isn't as annoying as His declaring He thinks your cauldron of seething fear, shame, and guilt is a good place for Him to take up residence and go from there. He knows, like fish, you will do everything you can to get off the hook. But He is the fisher of men and once you have bitten into God's acceptance you are GLUED TO LOVE. You start to love your neighbor as you are loved and over time even love your self. Because of this truth, the very best 'Self Help Book' is the Bible. Why? Because it constantly gives you ample reason to hate your self and God and everyone else. Then it reminds you to that you are...

GLUED TO LOVE
Jesus.
